STATEWIDE CURRENT SITUATION: Rain chances are expected to increase early next week in the NWS Houston/Galveston area, ahead of a cold front moving through on Wednesday. Rain chances end behind a front that pushes offshore on Wednesday. Average rainfall amounts range from a quarter to a half inch mainly in the Tuesday through Wednesday time period.

President Trump has amended the Texas Disaster Declaration to make additional disaster assistance available to the State of Texas. This action authorizes 90% Federal cost share for debris removal, and 100% Federal cost share for emergency protective measures for 30 days from the start of the incident period and then a 90% cost share thereafter.

Governor Abbott has issued a proclamation condemning the practice of price gouging, and reminded Texans that such practices are illegal and will be investigated and punished.

Governor Abbott has issued a suspension of specific vehicle titling and registration requirements for the next 45 days in the 58 counties specified in the state's disaster declaration. As a consequence, vehicle titling and registration expirations are suspended in order to relieve that burden upon Texans. Law enforcement will not issue citations for expired registration in all affected counties until October 16, 2017.

Governor Abbott has issued a proclamation to allow the Port Aransas Independent School District Board of Trustees to conduct a telephone meeting within a reasonable distance of the district.

Governor Abbott issued a disaster declaration for the counties of: Angelina, Atascosa, Aransas, Austin, Bastrop, Bee, Bexar, Brazos, Burleson, Caldwell, Cameron, Calhoun, Chambers, Colorado, Comal, Brazoria, DeWitt, Fayette, Fort Bend, Galveston, Goliad, Gonzalez, Grimes, Guadalupe, Hardin, Harris, Jackson, Jasper, Jefferson, Jim Wells, Karnes, Kerr, Kleberg, Lavaca, Lee, Leon, Liberty, Live Oak, Madison, Matagorda, Montgomery, Newton, Nueces, Orange, Refugio, San Patricio, Polk, Sabine, San Jacinto, Tyler, Trinity, Victoria, Walker, Waller, Washington, Wharton, Willacy and Wilson.

Significant River Flood Outlook

Valid: 9/2/2017 - 9/7/2017

West Gulf River Forecast Center 9/2/2017 11:08:13 AM

SIGNIFICANT RIVER FLOODING POSSIBLE.

SIGNIFICANT RIVER FLOODING LIKELY.

SIGNIFICANT RIVER
FLOODING OCCURRING OR IS IMMINENT.

Significant River Flooding Impacts include:
Roads adversely affected. Residential, commercial, industrial, and/or agricultural areas affected. May require evacuation of people.

NOTE: Flash Flooding or Minor River Flooding will NOT be included in this outlook.

Neches Basin – Record Flooding – B.A. Steinhagen continues to release water downstream to pass the receding flood waters from upstream near the peak at Evadale, signifying that the upstream water is all moving through now, but will take some time to drain all the water downstream. Village Creek is believed to have crested but the gage failed some time ago, but that water comes in downstream of Evadale.

Downstream, Pine Island Bayou has crested and continues to slowly recede but will be in major flood levels for some time. It is believed to get some reading at the salt water barrier and at Beaumont. While the exact validity of the data is in question, the trend is not, and it appears that the Beaumont area may be currently cresting from all the water passing through towards Sabine Lake.

Brazos Basin – Record Flooding – No significant precipitation was received in the past 24 hours ending at 7AM Saturday morning.

The largest impacts (Major Flood Stage) will be occurring at the lower end of the Brazos at: the Brazos River at Richmond (RMOT2), Brazos River at Rosharon (ROST2), and Brazos River at West Columbia (WCBT2). Current forecasts are based on 12 hours of future rainfall (QPF), however the next 12 hour total forecasts no rainfall. Future QPF beyond 12 hours will have no impact on current crest forecasts, as Harvey has moved out of the area. River forecast confidence will increase, as upstream crests arrive and Harvey moves out of the area. The focus will shift to timing the recession below critical impact elevations.

For the Brazos at Richmond (RMOT2) we have seen the crest early Friday morning and the river will continue a broad crest then start a recession.

For the Brazos at Rosharon (ROST2) the river is currently experiencing a barely discernible, broad second crest from upstream routed flow from RMOT2. Field reports at Sienna and LID 19, upstream from the JUL2 interior model point, indicated that a RMOT2 crest was beginning to trend downward at those locations.

For the Brazos at West Columbia (WCBT2), the forecast trend continues to hold as a rising trend to 32 feet. There is more uncertainty with this forecast, as compared to the RMOT2 and ROST2 forecast, because: (1) there is no measured rating curve (2) short duration of record (3) inter-basin transfer to Oyster Creek and potentially San Bernard basins.

The WCBT2 point is still rising as it continues to see the peak flow local crest from ROST2 that occurred on August 30, 2017. This local crest from ROST2 is routing very slowly to WCBT2, due to the massive amount of volume that was standing in the channel before the flood wave begins routing through.

The GOES-16 satellite "Veggie" band CH03 indicated that inter-basin transfer to Oyster Creek may have been occurring above West Columbia on August 30, although it is unclear if flow is being lost or gained from Oyster Creek. Other imagery that has been reviewed, confirms that there is a giant region of inter-basin transfer occurring at Oyster Creek. Also note, the timing from the 2016 crest was used to adjust the timing of the forecasted 32 foot crest.

San Jacinto Basin – Major Flooding – All of the basins across the San Jacinto system, including the larger creeks and bayous, have crested. Some basins are still experiencing major flooding. Lake Conroe is reducing releases. Lake Houston releases will continue. Addicks and Barker Reservoirs are making releases as well, with Buffalo Bayou remaining in flood stage/above criteria until further notice. The forecast points at Piney Point (PPTT2) and West Belt Drive (WSBT2) are still in major flood.

San Bernard Basin – Major Flooding – Heavy rainfall from Hurricane Harvey has caused major to record flooding across the entire San Bernard River basin. Stream gages at both East Bernard (EBBT2) and Boling (BOLT2) have crested and are now slowly falling. The new stream gage upstream of Sweeney (OCNT2) is continuing to rise along with the staff gage located downstream at Sweeny (SWYT2). River levels at these locations are expected to crest over the next 24 hours and then begin to slowly fall. East Bernard (EBBT2) is at minor flood levels. Boling (BOLT2), the new stream gage upstream of Sweeny (OCNT2), and the Sweeny staff gage (SWYT2) are in major flood levels.

Colorado Basin – Major Flooding – The Colorado River is falling at Wharton (WHAT2) and will be below major flood stage. Downstream, Bay City (BACT2) has now reached major flood levels and will experience slight additional rise to a crest Saturday evening. Matagorda (MRCT2) will continue to rise slightly within action stage levels.

Trinity Basin – Major Flooding – Lake Livingston continues to decrease its releases. Local runoff is also beginning to taper off. The main stem of the Trinity River and its tributaries have crested and are now falling at all locations. Flooding continues in the major category from Liberty (LBYT2) downstream to the coast.

Guadalupe Basin – Major Flooding – On the Guadalupe River, Victoria (VICT2) and Bloomington (DUPT2) have crested. The river will slowly recede over the next several days. Future rainfall will not significantly impact flows over the next 5 days.

Sabine Basin – Major Flooding – Major to near record flooding continues on the lower Sabine River system from Bon Wier downstream through Deweyville (DWYT2) and Orange (ORNT2), Bayou Anacoco near Rosepine (RPIL1) has crested but is still in moderate flood levels but on the recession. Water should remain high for a few days in this region.

OPERATIONAL PRIORITIES:

1. Protect life and property.
2. Support rapid & effective response.
3. Collect and disseminate accurate incident information to improve decision-making.
